As I write this it is not snowing but we have the forecast of another 6 inches. All of us have had plenty of weather related problems but I do hope everyone is having a Happy New Year.

A close friend and sister NVON member reminded me not long ago that she felt at loose ends back in August. In thinking about it she realized that we had not traveled in July to our normal NVON annual conference. Even though our NVON annual meeting had been in April she still missed that July "time" when we would have all been together. I too missed that time.

I am looking forward to our annual conference this July. Members of the Wisconsin Association for Home and Community Education have been working hard to plan for our visit to Green Bay. I urge you to pass on the conference information to members in your state as many "Exciting Opportunities Await" and once they attend they too will "Catch the Enthusiasm".

Here is my short list of Exciting Opportunities that await us in Green Bay.

Opportunity to renew old friendships

Opportunity to make new friends

Opportunity to attend business meeting and experience first hand how our NVON organization works.

Opportunity to hear what is happening in our member states.

Opportunity to hear ACWW Area President Rose Rajbansee speak on how we too can make a difference.

Opportunity to take a tour and learn about Wisconsin.

Opportunity to learn a new craft.

Opportunity to attend a continuing education seminar.

Opportunity to hear speakers on many different topics.

And my list could go on as I am sure those of you who have attended conference have their own opportunity list. Let's share "Exciting Opportunities Await" so that new attendees can "Catch the Enthusiasm". I look forward to seeing everyone in Green Bay.

Wisconsin Night-Think Cheese is only for Eating?

Come join us Wisconsin Night, Tuesday, July 19, 2011 for a tailgate party hosted by Wisconsin Association for Home and Community Education... Our NVON logo will be carved in cheese by world-known cheese carver Troy Landwehr.

Troy is 34 years old and the owner of Kerrigan Brothers Winery in Appleton, Wisconsin. He started carving cheese at the age of 11 as a 4-H project for The Great Wisconsin Cheese Festival in Little Chute, WI. He has a BFA in graphic design from Milwaukee Institute of Art and Design.

He is a certified cheese carver through the Wisconsin Milk Marketing Board. He has carved for national companies like Cheez-It's, Disney and Sam's Club. Along with TV shows, such as "The David Letterman Show," "The Best Dam Sports Show," "Monday Night Football," "Bonnie Hunt and more."

Many people ask why cheese? It doesn't melt on you like an ice carving. The carving and shreds make a delicious centerpiece for any party. The carving itself is good for many days and can be used throughout a conference and eaten later.

Cheddar cheese works the best for carving as it has a nice balance of oil and moisture content that is the perfect density for carving. Older cheeses are more brittle and have a tendency to fall apart and break under their own weight. Some cheeses are too soft and will not keep a proper shape when at room temperature. Cheddar cheese has the density that is close to carving in clay.

The cheese carvings have become even more popular with the opening of Kerrigan Brothers Winery in 2000, as cheese and wine are a great combination.

Wednesday Luncheon Speaker - Marilyn Herman

Marilyn Herman has had the pleasure of working with the Cooperative Extension Service for 35 years in Wisconsin and Minnesota.

Finding she wasn't good at retirement five years ago she rejoined UW-Extension in Waupaca County in the Family Living Program. Her career has included work as a 4-H Youth Educator, Family Living Educator, Food Safety Specialist for Agriculture Programs and a Community Development specialist. Marilyn has enjoyed the experience of working in Green Bay/Brown County; rural Waupaca County and the 7-county metropolitan center of Minneapolis and St. Paul.

Our speaker has given an interesting title to her speech.

"Giving Comfort and Finding Joy in this Cranky World"

Would you say our nation's mood has gone sour? Are people as nice as they used to be?

Does it seem like everyone is in a huff and a hurry? Take a few minutes to take your own anger pulse, rediscover ways to find peace of mind and be more encouraging to yourself and others.

It's Magic !!!

by Bruce Hetzler

Bruce grew up in St. Louis, MO, and learned magic under the guidance of several St. Louis magicians. His first of many television appearances was at age 17 on the Corky the Clown show in St. Louis.

In 1993, Bruce wrote the book Bev Taylor's TOWN HOUSE MAGIC, recreating the St. Louis magic scene of the 1950's. Phil Wilmarth, writing in the magic publication The Linking Ring, said: "This is professional magic for most any occasion . . . It's a beautifully produced book and highly recommended."

Bruce moved to Appleton, WI in 1976, to take a faculty position at Lawrence University, where he is a Professor of Psychology and Neuroscience. His interest in, and performance of, magic has continued to grow, as he frequently performs both strolling and stand-up magic for corporate and private functions throughout Wisconsin, averaging around 100 shows per year. He is the House Magician for the Ground Round Restaurant in Neenah, WI, where he performs table-side magic on Saturday nights.

Other clients include the Radisson Paper Valley Hotel, St. Norbert College, Wisconsin Academy of Family Physicians, Kimberly-Clark, Stone Harbor Resort & Conference Center, The Osthoff Resort, Edward Jones Investments, Wisconsin Business Education Association, Century 21 First Realty, Wisconsin National Guard Association, South Hills Golf & Country Club, and even the Green Bay Packers.
