Member organizations working together to promote communication, education, and volunteerism for all people

Dear National Volunteer Outreach Network Society Members,

The 2020 NVON South Carolina Conference Planning Committee and the NVON Executive Board have discussed the options for holding our conference at the Spartanburg Marriott, Spartanburg, South Carolina on July. 20-22, 2020. With the worries and concerns of the COVID-19 virus, the many unknowns of what the future will bring and the age and health concerns of many in our membership, we believe that it is in the best interest of all to cancel our 2020 conference in full at this time.

The work of all associated with NVON will continue. All society presidents will receive plans of action to complete the work for the remainder of this program year and that work will be completed via e-mail, electronic meetings or in person as we move forward. Our next society meeting is scheduled for September during the Country Women's Council meeting in Indianapolis. We would highly suggest that you attend that conference and join with us to continue the business of NVON. Please continue to visit our website at nvon.org for further information. Registration information for the CWC meeting can be found at cwcusa.org.

We are sorry that this virus has affected our individual states, our nation and the world in such a drastic manner and for what it has done to the health of citizens and to the economy. We thank the South Carolina Family and Community Leaders Conference Planning Committee for all of their efforts in planning the 2020 Conference and seeing to the details of suspending this event. We thank the Spartanburg Marriott for their concern and cooperation with our conference. We thank all of the societies and the members for their patience and understanding as we work through this unique and challenging time in our history. We will continue to "Make A Difference!"

Sincerely,

Stephanie Jerabek
