Tuesday Night - North Carolina Night - The Band of Oz

The Band of Oz was formed in 1967 as a part-time band playing fraternity parties and high school proms all over the South. In 1977 the band went on the road full time. Since that time the band has made an exceptional name for itself throughout the Southeast by playing the top clubs and corporate parties, and getting excellent reviews along the way. For several years the group has been a guest on most of the major beach concerts in the Carolinas, Virginia, and Georgia.

The Band of Oz is one of the most successful groups in the Southeast, and continues to get the very best reviews from the top people in the entertainment business. The band now features a full horn section to total a dynamic eight-member group. They still perform well over two-hundred shows per year for corporate events, festivals, concerts, wedding receptions, and many other public and private events.

Thursday Night - Paige King Johnson

After stepping into the spotlight with her debut single, “Water down the Whiskey,” climbing to the #29 spot on Music Row charts, four-time Carolina Country Music Award winner and Angier, NC native Paige King Johnson moved on to her next projects working alongside country legend Pam Tillis. Together they created multiple video projects. Among other projects, Paige was named the first musical ambassador for the NC Department of Agriculture and worked to promote agriculture through her music and travels.
